PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Quhuo Limited (the “Company”) respectfully notifies the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) that it is unable to file its annual report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 (the “Annual Report”) within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort and expense, because the Company needs additional time to compile all the information necessary to complete its annual financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021 and notes thereto. The Company expects to file the Annual Report within the 15-day extension period prescribed by Rule 12b-25(b)(2)(ii) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Forward-Looking Statements

This notification includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, the Company’s business plans and development, which can be identified by terminology such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “aim,” “estimate,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “potential,” “continue,” “is/are likely to” or other similar expressions. Such statements are based upon management’s current expectations and current market and operating conditions and relate to events that involve known or unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, all of which are difficult to predict and many of which are beyond the Company’s control, which may cause its actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could affect the Company’s forward-looking statements include, among other things, any changes to the anticipated financial results as a result of its independent registered public accounting firm completing the audit of the Company’s financial statements, the ability of the Company and its auditors to confirm information or data identified in the review, the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, and other risks and uncertainties discussed more fully in the Company’s filings with the Commission. Unless required by law, the Company expressly disclaims any obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
