Comment from Leslie Yu, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of QIHUO: “We are pleased to report solid performance results across all business sectors in our first annual results since the IPO. It was a challenging year as the economy slowed down due to the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. The business of some of our customers, especially those in the mobility and housekeeping industries, suffered when travel restrictions and other containment measures were implemented, and labor costs increased as a result of the labor shortage. Against these times of adversity, we delivered encouraging financial results while making solid progress in some new initiatives which we believe are critical for our long-term growth. For 2020, revenues increased by 25.5% to RMB2.6 billion compared with 2019. Adjusted EBITDA increased by 40.2% to RMB 130.6 million compared to the prior year. We believe that such improvement of profitability has demonstrated the effect of economies of scale and our operational efficiency driven by technology advancement.”

“2020 was a critical year for us to further develop and execute our strategies to diversify service offerings, and provide more opportunities for blue-collar jobseekers on our platform. By sector, our on-demand food delivery business maintained its industry-leading position with a 25.6% year-over-year increase in the number of the average monthly delivery orders. In the mobility sector which includes bike-sharing and ride-hailing businesses, we deepened cooperation with partners including Hello and Didi and continued to penetrate into more regions nationwide. We have also made great progress in the housekeeping solutions sector. We made strategic investments in Lailai, which specializes in housekeeping solutions for hotels and B&Bs, and Chengtu Home, a leading homestay service provider in China. These investments will accelerate our pace to gain a solid foothold in the housekeeping solutions sector. For 2021, as the containment of COVID-19 in China is gradually bringing life back to normalcy, we expect greater synergy to be created among our diverse solutions. In the meantime, we are building an infrastructure which will support a full series of services from recruiting blue-collar workers to providing vocational training that will increase their opportunities for better jobs. We believe such initiatives will enhance the stickiness of the Qihuo+ platform and enable us to gain long-term competitive advantage across various industries.”

Unaudited Fourth Quarter 2020 Financial Results

Revenues were RMB871.1 million (US$133.5 million), representing an increase of 32.0% year-over-year, primarily due to the increase in revenues generated from on-demand food delivery solutions.

- Revenues from on-demand food delivery solutions were RMB847.5 million (US$129.9 million), representing an increase of 30.0% from RMB652.0 million in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to the increase in delivery orders fulfilled as a result of the continued expansion into new geographical markets and the rapid growth of our grocery and fresh food delivery business, which contributed revenues of RMB36.0 million (US$5.5 million) in this quarter.
- Revenues from shared-bike solutions were RMB10.6 million (US$1.6 million), representing an increase of 119.3% from RMB 4.8 million in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to our expanding customer base and service scopes.
- Revenues from ride-hailing solutions were RMB4.6 million (US$702,000), representing an increase of 55.2% from RMB3.0 million in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to the increase in the number of vehicles we leased to ride-hailing drivers on our platform.
- Revenues from housekeeping solutions and other services were RMB8.4 million (US$1.3 million), representing a significant increase from RMB205,000 in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to our enlarged customer base for provision of housekeeping solutions, including hotels and B&Bs.

Cost of revenues was RMB831.0 million (US$127.4 million), representing an increase of 34.7% year-over-year, primarily due to the increased cost of revenues related to on-demand food delivery solutions.

- Cost of revenues related to on-demand food delivery solutions were RMB812.3 million (US$124.5 million), representing an increase of 33.1% from RMB610.3 million in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to increases in (1) service fees paid to riders, (2) insurance expenses for riders, and (3) hiring expenses.
- Cost of revenues related to shared-bike maintenance solutions was RMB8.9 million (US$1.4 million), representing an increase of 127.0% from RMB3.9 million in the fourth quarter of 2019, which was generally in line with the rapid growth of revenues generated from bike-sharing maintenance solutions.
- Cost of revenues related to ride-hailing solutions was RMB4.4million (US$678,000), representing an increase of 87.1% from RMB2.4 million in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to the increase in the number of vehicles leased from third parties.
- Cost of revenues related to housekeeping solutions and other services was RMB5.4 million (US$831,000), representing a significant growth from RMB205,000 in the fourth quarter of 2019, which was in line with the rapid growth of our housekeeping solutions and other services.

- Gross profit of on-demand food delivery solutions was RMB35.3 million (US$5.4 million), representing a decrease of 15.4% compared to the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to increases in service fees paid to riders, insurance expenses and hiring expenses as a percentage of revenues.
- Gross profit of shared-bike maintenance solutions was RMB1.8 million (US$268,000), representing an increase of 87.1% compared to the fourth quarter of 2019, which was generally in line with the rapid growth of revenues generated from bike-sharing maintenance solutions.
- Gross profit of ride-hailing solutions was RMB158,000 (US$24,000), representing a decrease of 73.1% compared to the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to the number of vehicles leased from third parties increasing at a greater pace than the number of vehicles we leased to ride-hailing drivers on our platform.
- Gross profit of house-keeping solutions and other services was RMB2.9 million (US$449,000), compared with gross loss in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to the larger enlarged customer base for provision of housekeeping solutions, including hotels and B&Bs.

Operating expenses were RMB 47.2 million (US$7.2 million), representing an increase of 3.9% year-over-year. Excluding share-based compensation, this represents an 2.8% decrease year-over-year.

Excluding share-based compensation, general and administrative expenses increased by 19.1% year-over-year, as a percentage of revenues, declined to 4.3% from 4.7% in the fourth quarter of 2019. As such, we believe that we achieved unit cost savings along with our business growth.
- Research and development expenses were RMB4.7 million (US$728,000), representing an increase of 49.3% from RMB3.2 million in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily due to the increase in the headcount of our research and development personnel.

Income tax benefit was RMB4.8 million (US$740,000), compared to the income tax expense of RMB1.2 million in the fourth quarter of 2019, primarily because some subsidiaries recorded profits as a result of improved operational results and, therefore, recognized deferred tax assets.

Net income attributable to Quhuo Limited was RMB12.0 million (US$1.8 million), compared with a net loss of RMB242,000 in the fourth quarter of 2019.

Adjusted EBITDA was RMB15.5 million (US$2.4 million), representing an increase of 63.6% from RMB9.5 million in the fourth quarter of 2019.⁽¹⁾

USE OF NON-GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

Quhuo has provided in this press release financial information that has not been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (GAAP).

Quhuo uses adjusted net income (loss) and adjusted EBITDA, which are non-GAAP financial measures, in evaluating our operating results and for financial and operational decision-making purposes. Adjusted net income (loss) represents net income (loss) before share-based compensation expenses. Adjusted EBITDA represents adjusted net income(loss) before income tax benefit(expense), amortization, depreciation and interest. Quhuo believes that these non-GAAP financial measures help identify underlying trends in its business that could otherwise be distorted by the effect of share-based compensation expenses, income tax benefits or expenses, amortization, depreciation and interest. Quhuo believes that such non-GAAP financial measures also provide useful information about its operating results, enhance the overall understanding of its past performance and future prospects and allow for greater visibility with respect to key metrics used by its management in its financial and operational decision-making.

The non-GAAP financial measures are not defined under U.S. GAAP and are not presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP. They should not be considered in isolation or construed as alternatives to net loss or any other measure of performance or as an indicator of Quhuo's operating performance. Further, these non-GAAP financial measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures presented by other companies. Other companies may calculate similarly titled measures differently, limiting their usefulness as comparative measures to the Company's data. Quhuo encourages investors and others to review the Company's financial information in its entirety and not rely on a single financial measure. Investors are encouraged to compare the historical non-GAAP financial measures with the most directly comparable GAAP measures. Quhuo mitigates these limitations by reconciling the non-GAAP financial measures to the most comparable U.S. GAAP performance measures, all of which should be considered when evaluating its performance. The following table sets forth a reconciliation of our net income (loss) to adjusted net income and adjusted EBITDA, respectively.
